Dear Parent/Carer,

We are planning to take the music centre string players for a music weekend to High Borrans in the Lake District. Unfortunately due to insurance and centre restrictions we are only able to take young people years 4 and above.

We have provisionally booked the weekend of the 2nd of March and need to confirm the booking with High Borrans as soon as possible.

The weekend will be a mixture of playing, outdoor activities and evening entertainment and will be lots of fun! The cost of the weekend including all meals, transport and activities will be £200 per child.

The bus will leave from the Langdale centre on Friday 2nd March at 1.00pm returning on Sunday 4th March around 3.00pm. As this is an educational visit, schools should not mark this as an absence.

If your child is interested in attending the weekend can you please express your interest to me by email no later than Friday 20th October at julie.dorr@northtyneside.gov.uk

If we have enough interest, we will confirm the booking and contact you with further details after half term.

Best wishes,

Julie Dorr
